Ciasa Salares

Armentarola, Trentino, Italian Dolomites

Nestling in the heart of the Dolomiti Superski (the largest interconnecting ski domain in the world), and an exhilarating venue for summer hiking surrounded by majestic peaks, the privately owned Ciasa Salares provides the ultimate in comfort, local culture and genuine mountain hospitality.

Ciasa Salares is one of the most celebrated privately owned luxury hotels in the Dolomites and prides itself on paying meticulous attention to every detail, preserving ancient local traditions and conveying respect for mountain culture and the magnificent surrounding Dolomites. Run by the Wieser Family ever since its establishment in 1964, the hotel offers an astonishing three restaurants, all proposing diverse, luxurious sensorial journeys. Ranging from an alluring Bona Lüna Bar to a sumptuous Nida Cheese and Nodla Chocolate Room, the Sorí Restaurant with the sun-kissed Infiní "Eat on Beat" Terrace and Cocun Cellar Restaurant with more than 2000 labels, this love for food culture is epitomised in the careful selection of the finest ingredients, aimed at offering a lavish and memorable experience.

Ciasa Salares has expanded over the years but has succeeded in maintaining it warm and personal atmosphere with excellent and charming staff where nothing is too much trouble. Its mottos of 'Alpine Soul' and 'style to warm the heart' explain everything succintly! Imagine a blend of familiarity and discovery, intimacy and surprise, a painstaking quest for organic and wholesome food - Ciasa Salares offers all this and more. Locally sourced materials have been used throughout ensuring a truly mountain ambience yet cleverly combined with stylish furnishings and dècor typical of this

'Ladin' part of the Dolomites. There is a variety of room types to choose from, but all are embellished with excellent bathrooms and overlook the fantastic mountain scenery with every comfort one could wish for.

After a day spent skiing or hiking in the mountains, guests can luxuriate in the fabulous newly renovated spa area including large pool, outdoor hot tub, sauna and Turkish steam room. Excellent treatments such as massages are available at the end of an active day before then heading to the fun and vibrant Bona Luna bar for an aperitivo or perhaps a private wine tasting in the famed, atmospheric Cocun wine cellar - heaven for any keen wine aficionados!

The highly trained staff at Ciasa Salares add to the magic of one's stay at Ciasa Salares – a dream destination in both winter and summer and one where many return to year in year out.
