Oriuolo Apartment

Florence, Tuscany

A rare find! With its fabulous large roof terrace enjoying views to the Duomo and Santa Croce, Oriuolo Apartment is ideally located for exploring Florence. Comfortable, light and airy, Oriuolo is ideally suited to short or long lets and will appeal to couples wishing to experience life in the heart of Florence.

Just a minute or two's walk from the Duomo is Oriuolo Apartment, situated on the top floor of a grand old Palazzo and enjoying the most magnificent views of the Duomo and Santa Croce from the large roof terrace. There is no escalator up to the apartment but instead one can keep fit climbing the original stone stairs to the top!

Entering into Oriuolo Apartment one is immediately struck by the light and airy feel and drawn across the living room to the spectacular terrace. Pretty pots of geraniums decorate the terrace where guests can enjoy dining al fresco and absorbing the truly magical view of the Duomo and the rooftops of Florence. There is even an electric operated canopy to provide shade in the hotter months and plenty of space to relax on a sunlounger with a book and a glass of wine after a day of sightseeing around the city.

The living/dining room is spacious and light with fireplace and two large divans which can provide additional sleeping for a couple of youngsters. Adjoining the living area is the well equipped kitchen with all one requires for cooking up delicious dishes with products from the fabulous nearby Florence food market. The double bedroom and bathroom also enjoy spectacular views and, being at the top of this fabulous patrician building it is peaceful and totally private.

Staying at Oriuolo Apartment could not be more convenient. Within easy access one can reach the Duomo, Piazza Signoria, Ponte Vecchio and Santa Maria Novella. Everything is at one's fingertips and the modest yet comfortable accommodation is ideal for a couple or even a family with one or two younger children. Perfect as well for anyone wishing to experience staying in Florence over a more prolonged period of time and also a charming venue in the winter one can often sit out on the terrace at midday and enjoy the magical atmosphere of Florence at Christmas time.
