Ca di Carlino

Bigliolo, Lunigiana, Northern Tuscany, Italy

With spectacular views to the Carrara hills and Apuan mountains, Ca di Carlino is a charming retreat for honeymooners or a small group of friends with every comfort considered and within easy reach of the Ligurian coast.

With spectacular views to the Carrara hills and mountains, Ca di Carlino is a charming retreat for one or more couples with every comfort considered and within easy reach of the Ligurian coast. Completely private, the house looks down over its own little valley of mature groves and vineyards - the only other sign of life are the pinpricks of light at night, in the distance, across the valley.

Nestled away in the Lunigiana hills, Ca di Carlino is a sympathetically restored stone farmhouse with heaps of character and charm. Tastefully and thoughtfully restored, many original features have been maintained whilst soft fabrics and pretty furniture create a relaxing atmosphere making Ca di Carlino a fabulous venue for both winter and summer holidays.

Upstairs, the master bedroom enjoys its own private terrace from which one can gaze across the hills and mountains and below, the vine covered loggia is a beautiful setting for al fresco dining beyond which are the olive trees, lemon trees and vineyards of Ca di Carlino, from which the owners produces his own vintage.

Down a path of iris and lavender is the infinity pool and sheltered terrace, where one can spend many hours relaxing in this peaceful and tranquil location. Not far away are the picturesque villages of the Cinque Terre or the more exclusive resorts of Portofino and Forte de Marmi, should one ever wish to venture away from this delightful and intimate venue. Romantic, peaceful and completely private.
