Casale Sarageto

Lucignano d'Asso, Val d'Orcia, Tuscany

A charming 18th century farmhouse on the edge of the borgo of Lucignano d'Asso, Casale Sarageto is an enchanting venue for anyone looking for a really authentic Tuscan experience amidst exceptionally beautiful surroundings.

The ancient hamlet of Lucignano d'Asso has been in the eminent Piccolomini family for six hundred years and still maintains the magical atmosphere of an untouched Tuscan dream location. With captivating views across the hills of Southern Tuscany to Montalcino and Monte Amiata, guests at Casale Sarageto can completely immerse themselves in this dreamy location relaxing at the villa and exploring the endless list of delightful places in the nearby vicinity.

Surrounded by beautiful mature gardens, Casale Sarageto is a wonderfully comfortable property for a family vacation in Tuscany. With its wonderful private pool, the shape of the wings of a bird, and adjacent pergola for al fresco dining Casale Sarageto is a haven of peace and tranquility. Here one can spend lazy days with a book gazing across the rolling hills before dinner cooked in the wood oven or on the barbecue situated in one of the two original loggias of the property. For anyone wishing to experiment with their outdoor dining this is the perfect place and with the abundance of delicious fresh produce available this can be a magical part of one's holiday!

Inside, Casale Sarageto has been thoughtfully and tastefully restored in keeping with its original structure. Fabulous original terracotta floors, beamed ceilings and fireplaces blend perfectly with the choice of colours, fabrics and furnishings chosen. The spacious kitchen with dining area is well equipped and an ideal venue for cookery lessons and the large living room with fireplace is ideally suited to relaxing with a book on the cooler spring or autumn evenings. Each of the bedrooms has been sympathetically decorated and all enjoy ensuite facilities. There is a wonderful feeling of light and space throughout and on the ground floor there is a large entrance hall with fireplace leading to the two loggia areas and beyond into the gardens.

Within easy proximity of all number of delightful towns including Pienza, Montalcino, Siena and San Quirico d'Orcia, Casale Sarageto is ideally suited as a venue from which to explore Val d'Orcia and beyond. This is an area rich in history, wineries, Pecorino farms, thermal spas and stunning countryside for biking and walking so guests at Casale Sarageto have a treat in store! This is a truly delightful holiday home; with the pristine borgo of Lucignano d'Asso on one's doorstep and the services of the delightful staff here to assist, guests will treasure their time at Casale Sarageto.
