Villa Cima

at Villa d'Este, Cernobbio, Lake Como, Lombardy

Built in 1814 on the banks of Lake Como, Villa Cima offers the ultimate in luxury with all the benefits and facilities of Villa d'Este to hand – a magical & breathtaking location.

Within the magnificent grounds of Villa d'Este standing on the shore of Lake Como is Villa Cima, built by Caroline of Brunswick, Princess of Wales and future Queen of England, to house Count and Countess Pino, former proprietors of Villa d'Este. Beautifully renovated with colours blending perfectly with the surrounding parkland, Villa Cima is spacious and light and is distributed on three floors with stunning views across the lake from throughout the property.

The master entrance opens into a beautifully bright white & black marble floor with a large, winding red staircase leading to the first floor. The elegant living room with picturesque seating areas with sofas, chairs, coffee tables, and a fireplace leads to another small sitting and TV room with dark red velvet sofas and coffee table. Outside is the panoramic terrace overlooking the wonderful lake as well as a second, lovely external sitting area, which is ideal for relaxing with a drink and watching the sunset.

The elegantly simple dining room with oval dining table leads into the fully equipped kitchen which enjoys all modern amenities and offers an 'island' format. The tastefully decorated bedrooms are spacious and panoramic varying in size and location, all of them facing the lake with either a large, panoramic balcony or a large terrace. Each boasts an en-suite dressing room and marble bathroom.

The lower part of the park in which Villa Cima is situated is from the Renaissance period. The two most outstanding landmarks are its 500-year-old plane tree and the 16th century Mosaic with its Nympeum. Apart from the topiary hedges and the bushes of bamboo, azaleas, camellias, oleanders, rhododendrons, hydrangeas, there are roses and jasmine bushes. Trees include chestnut, magnolia, wisteria, palm, cypress, pine, ilex and privet and guests can enjoy wandering through this historic and beautiful parkland beneath the stars looking across the glistening lake.

Guests at Villa Cima have the best of both worlds – the privacy of one's own villa right on the lake shore combined with the luxury of being able to enjoy the impeccable services and facilities of Villa d'Este such as the Sporting Club, swimming pools, private boat hire or dining in one of the restaurants. Added to this one has the option of private dining at the villa when guests can relax and unwind sipping a glass of wine whilst gazing across the lake before a sumptuous dinner on the lake terrace or inside the elegant dining room. Heavenly!
