

Convento Viandante del Cielo

Lake Trasimeno, Umbria

Spectacular yet discreet luxury villa imagined and created by renowned Hollywood director George Lucas, Convento Viandante del Cielo is the ultimate destination for a truly magical Italian experience where service is of the highest quality.

With spectacular views of Lake Trasimeno below, Convento Viandante del Cielo was originally established around 1566 by Capuchin monks and is now a stunning home set amidst 60 acres of private grounds. The lengthy and tasteful restoration of the Convento has resulted in a property steeped in elegance and luxury whilst at the same time maintaining the character and history of its original soul. Convento Viandante del Cielo oozes atmosphere where every contemporary amenity and facility is available and a place where guests can be swept away into a world of peace, tranquility and relaxed living. We have a 25 staff member team available all day to cater to your every need.

Inside the Convento the furnishings and décor have been exquisitely designed with every little detail taken into account. Each of the ten suites has been individually decorated with the most luxurious of bathrooms and absolutely nothing left wanting. In each one can find the very best linens and toiletries, cutting edge entertainment centers and individually chosen artworks. All have sitting areas and each has its own particular character be it a private terrace, a wood-burning fireplace or balcony with views of Lake Trasimeno. The Michelangelo master suite enjoys its own sitting area, parlour, study, two fireplaces and balcony! A fabulous living room with grand piano and open fireplace is a delightful place to enjoy evening aperitivi in the cooler months and doors lead onto the garden and a variety of pergola covered areas for dining or relaxing with a book. As many meals as possible are served outside (weather dependant), so even breakfast is served on one of the terraces. Guests love eating outside!

Below the main building is the spa area where guests can enjoy a variety of treatments as well as taking exercise in the very well-equipped gym or time to relax in the sauna and hammam. There is even a tennis coach available for those guests keen to play on the fabulous court here set amidst the trees behind the house.

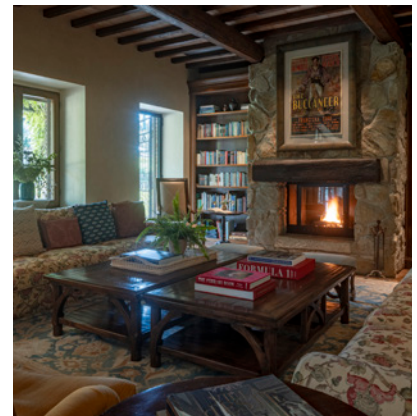

In the beautifully manicured gardens is the large pool from which one can enjoy magnificent views of Lake Trasimeno and all around the property are numerous enchanting spots where one can sit and savour the magic of this exclusive home.

The beautifully restored chapel reminds one of the devout history of the Convento and provides the perfect place for quiet contemplation as well as the venue for a special ceremony.

A separate restored building with fantastic open eaves and stonework is where guests can enjoy plenty of recreation! Here, one can discover a fabulous library with formal dining hall, an extensive cellar with a fine collection of wines and the main kitchen where the exceptional chef can be watched at work as he creates genuine Italian cuisine using the very best fresh, local ingredients. Guests can take part in cookery classes here and also enjoy dining at the chef's table and, later in the evening, one can retire for a game of billiards or totally unwind in the state-of-the-art home cinema where there is an extensive choice of films to choose from be it old classics or new, recent releases. Many guests may choose to simply stay put at Convento Viandante del Cielo and totally absorb the wonder of this much loved villa. Others may wish to explore, and if so then anything can be organized be it private guides to wineries, a drive in a classic car amidst the nearby Umbrian and Tuscan countryside and hill top villages, or a trip a little further afield to Siena or Florence. Nothing is too much bother for the highly professional and very friendly staff.

Convento Viandante del Cielo really is a place where even the most stressed are able to rejuvenate the body and spirit. Hospitality is the very best, facilities are exceptional, cuisine is genuine yet refined and the serene splendour of this beautiful location goes beyond one's dreams. To be experienced to be believed!
